

Child & Youth Counselling Impact Report April 1, 2023 - Mar 31, 2024

50

children & youth have received specialized counselling this year

154

specialized counselling sessions delivered this year to children & teens - 72 sessions were fully subsidized and 81 were partially subsidized

13%

of our new clients
are children &
teens

Survey Says.....

- 100% of parents report that our counselling services are effective in helping their child address their needs.
- 100% of parents report that counselling has positively impacted their child's wellbeing.
- 100% of parents are satisfied with the communication between the counsellor and their child.
- 100% would definitely recommend our counselling services to other parents seek support for their children.

"My child feels supported and able to reach out to their counsellor. They are comfortable with her and it makes my heart feel good that my child has this counselling centre to support her."

A GRATEFUL MOM OF AN 11 YEAR OLD.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR HELP!

"My son's counsellor is absolutely wonderful. He looks forward to his sessions with her. He always comes out smiling, laughing and with more problem solving tools after each session. She is truly amazing and goes above and beyond."